Catalina Sirena

She is from the small town of Temperance Michigan. She loves swimming and learning new things. In just 21 short years she has experienced a lot of life's twists and turns ranging from some college life to Military training. Although she is no longer in the military, she still loves the lifestyle of structure and wants to go back. While she is awaiting clearance to go back she is considering going back to school in hopes to become a medical examiner. Morbid sounding at first, but the reason she has behind it is touching. She actually has the family in mind and wants to give them the closure they deserve. She spends her nights working hard but she plays even harder. One thing this little sweet heart will never tell is that she enjoys feeling afraid. She will push her limits till she is uncomfortable just to see how far she can get. While she is doing this, you might catch her trying to push your buttons as well. She currently spends her free time in bed under the covers with her boyfriend.

Cardice Elizabeth

Cardice Elizabeth is an aspiring glamour, lingerie and bikini/swimwear model from Perth, Australia. She currently works in administration but assures us that it isn't nearly as boring as people first assume when they're told: "I spend half of my day looking at people's naked selfies and researching sex-related bits n pieces to write articles on all things sex. Probably slightly ironically, Red used to be a high school teacher, which is where her passion for modelling first started. As a part of her teaching degree, she studied Drama which led to her doing photoshoots to get some interesting images for her portfolio to do acting jobs. She originally has no interest in modellings, but after her first photoshoot, she realised how much she enjoyed being in front of the camera.

Red only began to think about seriously pursuing modelling last year after her teaching career ended, and since changing careers she has been published twice in Zoo Weekly Australia as a featured competition entrant and had a one page article in American magazine Chulo Magazine.

She's currently taking part in an online competition called Playboy Miss Social, which is a non-nude international competition, as well as numerous other competitions to be featured in calendars and on magazine covers.

When it comes to her life outside of work and pursuing modelling, Red loves shopping, going to watch live theatre or to the movies, checking out live music, heading out with friends for a few drinks and a dance, and she really enjoys eating out and other things that get her out of the house but back to bed at a decent hour during the week! As a single girl, she also loves dating and meeting new people, and really enjoys the freedom of being single. When it comes to the kind of guy that she likes, Red says "I love guys that have strength and a natural confidence. You don't have to be a muscle-bound gym-freak to have both of those things - it's a personality thing.

I also love when they're taller and I feel little and petite next to them! They also look much hotter in the morning than women do!" She also commented that she's partial to the 'hot geek' look in guys and loves glasses and intelligence.

Surprisingly, she says that she meets most of her dates online: "I love online dating. I can be lying in bed in my PJs with zero make-up on looking hideous and be putting in the groundwork for a hot date! So convenient. Plus people are much more upfront about what they're after on there."

As to what she plans to do next, Red plans to enter any online modelling competition that she's eligible for to get her face and name out in the public eye. She has a photoshoot for a fashion company in the pipe works, as well as potential shoots with other companies after being approached to talk about shooting for them. Red also hopes that her modelling might open up doors for her on television (she auditioned for a popular reality TV show last week and plans to audition for any others that come along) and would be keen to be signed to be a reputable modelling and acting agency.

I'm from Way down southern Louisiana And am known as a best friend to many. I'm the girl all the boys want around because I can do anything they do. I enjoy photography, modeling, singing and anything that has to do with water. I love wine and hate cigarette smoke But I love the smell of burnt oil and burnt rubber.

Shawneen Allen

My name's Shawneen & I'm a 24 year old Professional Freelance Model with 5 years experience in the Business & am loving every minute of it!

I'm an Irish Girl from Northern Ireland & have been entering Beauty Pageants since I was a baby. Winning Titles such as Baby Bonny, Little Miss Northern Ireland & Miss Holiday Princess.

JENNIFER POWELL

Hello, my name is Jennifew Powell, 38 years old. Born and raised in Canton, Ohio. I have many tattoos that all have a significant meaning about my life. They all tell a lot about me. From my struggles, hard times, fun times, sadness, weakness, wild side and inspirations. I also have numerous piercings. It is very important to me to keep striving for my goals and dreams. One of my dreams as a little girl was to model for a famous magazine and be a CoverGirl. Another dream was to be published in a calendar.

I started my modeling career five years ago with the support of my husband and children. I wanted to show my children and prove to myself, that it's never too late to make your dreams come true. A big quote I live by is, "Your life is what you make it". No one else can make your life for you. Also, "your life's a journey, not a destination.". I am not afraid to step out of the box and try something new. One month my hair could be pink and platinum and the next month I will be rocking blue, black, purple hair. I am the girl who will try anything once. Heck, even go back for more. I am open to any kind of modeling from fashion to erotic or fun to wild and crazy. If you ever want or are looking for a certain picture, I am that model ready and willing to make it happen. Things that turn me on are men and women covered in tattoos. Another big one is Harley Davidson motorcycles. I always tell everyone, "There's nothing like feeling the vibration between my legs and the wind in my hair!". I love and want to be different than other models out there. I believe it shows others that it's okay to be who you are. Being different makes us all unique. From our scars, blemishes, sizes, things we all are so hard on ourselves about, others don't see. The body is a beautiful thing. Our bodies are just our own canvases. People with tattoos are just more fun and colorful to look at. Beauty is more than just skin deep though. People should never judge a book by its cover. Some of us just write our life's stories on the outside. I live my life on the edge and to the fullest because we are never promised tomorrow. I've been published on many websites, posters, magazines and working on creating my own website

I am Catalina Sirena, I am full of fun and love a good challenge! I'm not an everyday model, I'm boyish and sarcastic and love getting down and dirty. Anything fast I love! Anything that gets the adrenaline goin!

I'm a pole dancer (well try to be) an spend most my time in the gym and on the pole! If I'm not doing that I'm out doing something crazy Fun!

Im from Cornwall but have grown up in california and vegas! I must say I do love my life!

I am also a complete beach bum! When it's a sunny day you'll always find me hidden away with my closest friend with our toes in the sea and sand in our hair.

I am loyal loving and nothing like people expect!

CATALINA SIRENA

Christina Marie

My name is Christina Marie and I am a model currently living down on the Jersey Shore. When I m not modeling

I am a veterinary technician at a local animal hospital in town and I absolutely love my job! I started working with animals right out of high school and have been doing so ever since. I ve been a vet tech for 5 years now. I ve been modeling over the past 4 years on and off. Growing up I was the tom boy that no one thought was pretty. I m so comfortable with myself and my body now that I love showing it off the way I do and modeling lets me do that. Being able to embrace yourself in front of a camera is exhilarating.

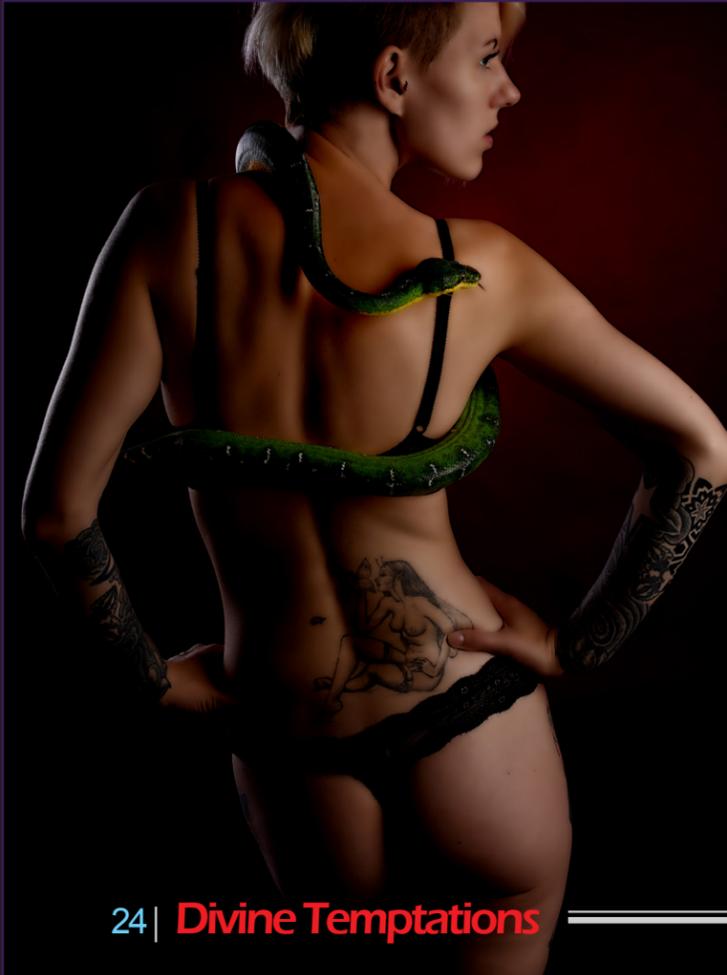

Since starting I won a spot in the Bikini Calendar as Miss August, was published in the Bikini Magazine November 2014 issue and also have done multiple photo shoots with many more on the way! My dream is to be successful in this industry, and to also get more into acting (I ll be starring in my first independent horror film set to start production in spring). My ultimate goal and one of my biggest dreams is to get the chance to be published in Playboy and to become a Playmate.

I grew up around horses so horseback riding is another one of my favorite hobbies outside of modeling. I was always around the farm doing work since I was a little girl, taking care of the horses and what not, so it s in my blood. I also have become a huge gym person, working out is the best stress reliever. I cannot wait to see what the future holds for me and am ready for anything that comes my way; so ready for it!

Jessi Kaos

Jessikaos is an alternative model from the South Coast of England. Specialising in art nude, she has been modelling for three years. In her spare time, she enjoys caring for animals, and loves to incorporate them into her shoots.

1 year old southern UT model been modeling most of my life but just got serious about it in September 2014 I am divorced mother of five boys with one left at home I'm looking forward to expanding my modeling career into as many avenues as possible. I'm definitely not shy and have a fabulous body for my age and having five children. I'm a very open and honest sexual woman, but hard to handle need I say more. Lol

RAQUEL DE HAAN

Kelly Winkler

Kelly Winkler, Age 34 Resides in Harrison, AR. Hobbies consist of watching football. Two favorite teams LSU and New Orleans Saints. Passions for hunting and fishing. Mudding and hitting backroads...cold drink in hand. Horseback riding when possible. Modeling and photo shoots make me feel sexy. Collecting and target shooting with guns. Get me on the dance floor, I love it! Family values are extremely important. I have grown to appreciate the fans and admirers that follow along with me on this journey. Currently an LPN (nurse) working towards my PhD. I am absolutely head over heels for a guy that can keep up with me! That being said I am single!! I do love tattoos on guys and I have some myself and if your the lucky one you might just get to see! 50 Shades of Gray is my favorite read. Movies of liking would consist of Fried Green Tomatoes, and Pulp Fiction. Quentin Tarantino movies always spark my interest. I listen to a wide array of music, however, Niki Manaj would certainly be considered my favorite! I have always enjoyed my time in "Sin City". The people I admire most are the single mothers out there and our Troops!

RustyS

RustyS

My name is Tricia. I have been modeling on and off for close to 10 years. I am from the Greater Boston Ma area. I started modeling later in life than most. I`m 45 and proud of it. I have a beautiful 25 yr old, brilliant daughter. She has decided to use her god given brilliant mind instead of becoming a model. I`m an x-professional dancer, but still have a passion for the performing arts.

I consider myself to be very passionate and compassionate. I truly believe In The Golden Rule, you never know when Karma is coming to nip you in the butt.

Lia Tricia

A quiet shy beauty. Growing up I didn't realize that I was a pretty girl or want any one to even think I was, so I put on this tough girl act and adopted this alternative look to scare the boys away! It took me until 18 to climb out of my shell and quit getting in trouble. Then a few more years to mature and develop my look, I feel just as beautiful with cherry red hair as I do with my natural brunette color! I am still shy and quiet but I love teasing every man who may catch a glimpse of me, I love feeling and looking sexy, being wanted, lusted after... I am a good girl just have dirty thoughts...

I did a few music videos in Ohio for local Rappers and an Energy drink even worked with a few well known Rappers but took a bit of a hiatus. I was doing a lot of traveling back and forth from Ohio to New York, (I just love the city, my heart was made for New York) I'd sneak to the city every chance I got, finally I just moved here. I did a lot of nothing, jobs at salons (luckily I have a cosmetology license when my looks fail!) I'm glad though, I save tons of money since I know how to do hair and makeup myself!

So I visit Ohio for my sisters wedding reception a couple pics of snapped of me that blew up and ended up on a few sites and modeling agencies began calling me. Luckily, I befriended a model, who introduced me to my personal photographer, Mauricio Morales, (brilliant) he mentors me, helps me understand the industry, looks over me. He snaps some shoots I post them on social network sites, other photographers asked to work with me... Then One source talent signed me a few weeks ago, and also allowed me to do independent work such as this!

LORIS GONFIOTTI

Interview

Q-In your opinion, what makes photography an art? Being unrepeatable and unique each photo is the result of an instant

Q-How would you describe your overall style of photography? GLAMOUR is purely my style and I would add in my own way, I call my glamour.

Q-Do you think that society would be different if photography was never invented? Certainly I think that the picture represents the memory of the human being and the realization of the emotions that we feel.

Q-If you weren't a photographer, what would you want to be? why? I Would have been a DJ, because the music is my second passion, I have been but then my vision has been changed from the photograph.

Q-Tell us someone in your art, you would love to work with? (could be a model, artist etc) I would like to work with Milla Jovovich, I find it very special and charming, a model actress with particular traits out of the canons of the dolls.

Q-What do you feel you have to offer, that sets you aside from other photographers? May I offer my experience, but in reality only advice on how to bring out the best, always.

Q-Any future projects you would like to discuss? This year will be the turning point in my career, I have several major projects for now remain secret

Q-Anyone you want to shoutout? I want to shoutout known porn star Sasha Grey, now acting normal.

Q-Anything else you would like to add? captures the moment and express it with the photograph.

LORIS GONFIOTTI INTERVIEW

Q-Name? LORIS GONFIOTTI

Q-Hometown? I Live in Montecatini Terme - Tuscany - ITALY

Q-Favorite place in the world to be? MIAMI undoubtedly

Q-What has been your most memorable moment in your career so far? Every time you click a new photo shoot is like the first time, great energy and adrenaline.

Q-What is your ultimate career goal? Where do you see yourself in the future? My goal is to make a calendar important for an international magazine, in the future I see myself always new models ready for action and adventure.

Q-When did you become interested in photography? I started to photograph the event for about seven years ago, until that moment I did not think of becoming a photographer, but I fell in love with my vocation.

Q-Why is photography important to you? Because it is the means by which I can represent my emotions my visions, what my eyes see.

Q-Who or what influenced you to become a photographer? My wife who is a model helped to evoke in me the passion for photography.

Q-Do you have a favorite photograph? Course, to my newborn daughter

Q-Do you think that a person must possess talent to capture emotion and expression in the picture? Course photography is innate within us, I think it's a matter of instinct, vision and emotions strictly personal and unique.

Q-Does location matter to you when shooting? Rather photograph in ambient light outside where I can get a feel of the moment in all its diversity.

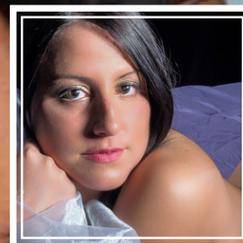

ALICE FAYE

I

'm Alice Faye 22 year old from Ohio. I have been modeling for a short while now and just love it. I love being a curvy model. Im able to be happy in my skin, and love showing the world no matter what you look like your beautiful. Every time I get in front of the camera I fall down my own little rabbit hole, and just lose my mind and have fun. I look forward to the future and all the great photographer that I one day hope to work with.
