Malloy hails from Birmingham, Alabama and has been modeling for private shoots, magazine layouts and has traveled extensively for artistic workshops. Malloy's measurements are 32c 23 34 and she is 5' 5" tall. Very talented model and is now trying her hand on the other side of the camera as well moving into photography and video to add to her resume. A fantastic model to work with and her ambition is to truly leave her mark on the world!

I am currently using my modeling to help pay for my college tuition. My goals are to get my Phd. I Psychology and use this to education to further my ambitions in life as well as I really believe that I can help others. I travel as much as I can and other than studying for the endless tests and quizzes in school, I hike, bike and work out as much as my time allows me to when not modeling. This was my first librarian shoot and I loved the photos! Hopefully, you will as well.

Hi my name is Sara, I am from Saint Louis Missouri, I currently reside in St. Charles Missouri. I love music, animals (especially my bulldog Bently), football, and sunshine. Since I was a teenager, I've always wanted to be a model. I love fashion, wearing pretty outfits everywhere I go, wearing different hairstyles, and love taking pictures. I've always been a stylish person from work to outdoors. I never thought I could be a model and always doubted myself, but here I am, with help from Neil Valli at "eNVy Boudoir" being a model, so hopefully this will inspire others with doubt to go for it!
